

Christmas at The Science Museum Flight Gallery

Allow your guests to enjoy a night at the science museum, drinking and dining exclusively amongst the exhibits of the stunning Flight Gallery.

As guests arrive they will be welcomed in to a beautifully lit reception where they will sip on a glass of something sparkling. At the call for dinner they will move through to the Flight Gallery to enjoy a sumptuous feast in and amongst magnificent displays.

This fantastic event space is filled with extraordinary displays reflecting both British and international achievements in aviation. Your guests will enjoy the unique experience of dining and dancing beneath exhibits from the flight dreams of the Renaissance through to the jump-jet aeroplanes of today.
